Subject: Second retirement job?

The UCF Police Department is starting a large and long range hiring/expansion plan. We currently have 68 officers and our goal is 90. To that end we plan to hire 12-15 officers per year in 3 hiring cycles of 4-5 per. Our plan is to hire 50% experienced officers. We are part of the State of Florida FRS retirement system so OPD officers can start working on a second retirement. Below is a link to a Sentinel article with a link to our page. We will post for 5 openings again starting on Jan. 30. If you know of someone that may want find out more, have them give me an email or call. Please forward this to anybody you think might be a good fit. Thanks, Curt

Want to work in law enforcement at UCF?

UCF Police Department launches marketing campaign to hire new officers over the next several years.

In a move to increase patrols around campus, the University of Central Florida's police department will hire 15 new officers this year, officials announced Thursday.

The hiring wave is expected to continue over the next several years at the UCF Police Department, which currently employs 68 sworn officers.

University spokesperson Courtney Gilmartin said the officers' base salaries are expected to be $40,000 a year.

In 2014, the police office dealt with about 1,140 complaints which ranged from criminal mischief to sexual battery to driving under the influence, according to the department's log.

On Monday, the department plans to unveil a marketing campaign to attract job candidates by showcasing a UCF-themed police car and posting the jobs online here.
